

General Discussion Questions on Justice

What is the relationship between law and justice in the story?

Can you identify moments when legal outcomes contradict moral or ethical justice?

How does the author portray the consequences of injustice?

How do characters react when justice is denied or delayed?

Are any characters forced to choose between justice and loyalty (to family, friends, community)?

What do their choices reveal?

Does the narrative suggest that justice is universal or culturally relative?

How do different characters define or pursue justice?

Is there a clear "villain" responsible for injustice in the story, or is it a systemic issue?

How do symbols (e.g., scales, courts, weapons, blindness) represent justice or injustice in the text?