

General Discussion Questions on Family

In what ways do family traditions or cultural backgrounds influence the characters' identities and choices?

How do the family relationships shape the protagonist's journey or personal growth?

What role does family loyalty play in the story? Are there moments when characters have to choose between family and personal values?

What kinds of conflicts arise within the family, and how are they resolved (or not)?

How do family expectations influence the protagonist's sense of self and decision-making?

Are there secrets or unspoken truths within the family? How do these affect trust and intimacy?