

Essay Prompts on Class Conflict

Discuss the role of class conflict in shaping the identities and motivations of the main characters in a literary work.

How do class divisions influence their decisions and relationships?

Compare and contrast the portrayal of class conflict in two different literary works.

How do the authors' approaches to class struggle reflect the historical contexts in which they wrote?

Explore how class conflict intersects with other forms of conflict (such as gender, race, or power) in a literary text.

How does this intersection deepen the narrative?

Evaluate the use of symbolism and imagery related to class conflict in a literary work.

How do these literary devices enhance the theme of class struggle?

