

General Discussion Questions on Prejudice

How is prejudice defined in the story, and how does it manifest among characters?

Does the prejudice shown in the text come from ignorance, fear, tradition, or power?

How does the author reveal the subtle vs. overt forms of prejudice?

What harm does prejudice cause to individuals and to the community in the story?

Are there characters whose lives are irreversibly changed by prejudice?

How does prejudice influence the plot's major conflicts and resolutions?