

Miller, Arthur: 1915–2005

All My Sons, 1947 – Characters

Joe Keller: The patriarch of the Keller family and the protagonist of the play.

Kate Keller (often referred to as "Mother"): Joe's wife and the mother of Chris and Larry Keller.

Chris Keller: Joe and Kate's surviving son, a World War II veteran in his early 30s.

Ann Deever: The daughter of Steve Deever.

George Deever: Ann's older brother and Steve's son.

Steve Deever: Ann and George's father and Joe's former business partner.

Larry Keller: Joe and Kate's eldest son, a pilot who went missing during the war.

Dr. Jim Bayliss: A neighbor of the Kellers; Jim is a doctor in his 40s.

Sue Bayliss: Jim's wife.

Frank Lubey: Another neighbor, in his early 30s. Frank avoided the draft.

Lydia Lubey: Frank's wife, 27, a happy and simple woman.

Bert: A neighborhood boy, about eight years old.

