

General Discussion Questions on Cultural Values

Which characters embody the dominant cultural values of their society, and which challenge them?

How do cultural expectations shape gender roles in the narrative?

What does the text suggest about the relationship between personal freedom and cultural loyalty?

Which cultural expectations create harmony, and which create tension within the family?

For characters who migrate or move between cultures, what values do they keep, lose, or transform?

What does the text reveal about cultural adaptation versus cultural preservation?