

Williams, Tennessee: 1911–1983

A Streetcar Named Desire, 1947 – Characters

Blanche DuBois

A fading Southern belle, fragile and neurotic, who arrives in New Orleans to stay with her sister Stella after losing their family estate.

Stanley Kowalski

Stella's husband.

Stella Kowalski

Blanche's younger sister.

Harold "Mitch" Mitchell

Stanley's softer, more sensitive poker buddy.

Eunice Hubbell

The upstairs neighbor and landlady's friend.

Steve Hubbell

Eunice's husband and one of Stanley's poker pals.

Pablo Gonzales

Another of Stanley's poker buddies.

The Negro Woman

A minor character (sometimes called "Colored Woman" in early texts),.

The Doctor

Appears at the end to escort Blanche to the asylum.

The Nurse (Matron)

Accompanies the Doctor.

Allan Grey

Blanche's deceased husband.

Young Collector

A teenage boy collecting newspaper payments.

Mexican Woman

A street vendor selling flowers for the dead.